

Job Opening – Apply at the front desk

Position title: Library Assistant I	Department: Library
Reports to: Director	Supervises: N/A
FLSA status: Part-time hourly	Date revised: 01/16/17
Salary: $9.50-10.00/hour plus IPERS and paid leave	Hours: 56 hours per pay period (two weeks)

Position Summary

Working primarily at the front desk, a Library Assistant I represents the library and Fairfield to patrons and out-of-town visitors. S/he uses a computer to check materials in and out, to compile records, to establish and renew confidential patron accounts, to inform people about library resources and events, etc. Each library employee also selects new materials for an assigned area of the collection.

Essential Job Duties

- Customer service—Maintain high standards of internal and external customer service while upholding policies established by the library board, including the collection of fines and fees. Assist patrons in using public computers and equipment, taking advantage of ‘teachable moments’ to explain resources. Make calls promptly when reserved materials become available for the next patron in the queue.
- Safety and security—Safeguard customer trust and comply with state law by maintaining confidentiality of patron accounts. Adhere to security routines established for opening and closing the library, and for dealing with inappropriate patron behavior.
- Accurate record keeping—Maintain an accurate patron database, along with reservation calendars for meeting rooms and audiovisual equipment. Check in returned materials, routing damaged items to mending, and sort materials for shelving. Accurately use a credit card machine and cash register, and give correct change.
- Reference questions—Provide accurate answers to basic reference questions, routing advanced reference questions to the Director or Youth Services Librarian. Take contact information for later follow-up when a question cannot be answered immediately.
- Readers advisory—Use NoveList Plus to provide quality readers advisory service, after receiving some instruction in its use.
- Shelving—Ensure that items are easy to locate by shelving them in proper sequence among 40 collections. Modify loan periods for aging items, and then transfer those items to other shelves.
- Collection development—Select new materials for an assigned area of the collection by reading short reviews from trusted sources. Adhere to guidelines for weeding.
- Cross training—Participate in cross training to ensure that core services run smoothly during co-workers’ vacation leave, sick leave, etc.

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities Required

- Communication skills—Communicate with co-workers and the public in a courteous and respectful manner. This is the glue of goodwill that fosters trust in the workplace.
- Typing—Accurate keyboarding skills at 50wpm or better.
- Detail oriented—Attention to detail for accurate record keeping and materials finishing.
- Computer use—Good working knowledge of PCs and Microsoft Office programs.
- Sequencing abilities—Accurately sort fiction by author name, and nonfiction by Dewey number, after receiving some instruction.

- Physical requirements—See the document titled Physical Job Requirement Analysis, approved by the library board on 1/16/17.
- Exams and tests, upon request of the Director—Post offer physical exam, drug testing, and/or background check may be required.
- Residency—Must reside within 30 miles of the Fairfield City Hall. This residency requirement must be established within six months after the date of hire and shall be maintained throughout employment with the Fairfield Public Library.

Entry Requirements

- Education/Training—High school diploma or GED equivalence.
- Work Experience—Two years of clerical and customer service experience are preferred.

Work Environment

Most work is performed in an office setting seated or standing with appropriate heating and cooling, and is not subject to significant occupational or environmental hazards, other than those normally associated with general public contact. Most work is performed at a computer, or using other office equipment. The noise level in this work environment is usually low. Work may involve frequent interaction with the public and frequent interruptions. Ongoing contact with the public always has the potential for dealing with difficult or unhealthy patrons.

Hours of Work

Library Assistant I positions are budgeted for 56 hours per pay period (two weeks), including afternoons on alternating weekends. This position is occasionally required to work different hours with minimal notice to meet operational needs.
