Book drop An after-hours return slot is located in the alley on the south side of the library building. To avoid overdue charges, return materials by midnight of their due date. PLEASE RUBBER-BAND FRAGILE CASES for DVD, Blu Ray, music CDs, and audio books to prevent damage when using the book drop.

Maximum overdue fine The maximum overdue fine for any one item is $5.00.

Renewal of library materials Most library materials can be renewed once, as long as another patron has not reserved them. You may renew in person or through your online account. We cannot accept renewal of library materials by phone or email.

Inclement weather In case of bad weather, please plan accordingly. We do not extend loan periods based upon weather conditions. Be prepared to pay overdue charges if inclement weather prevents you from returning items on time.

Exceeding the grace period After the grace period, a daily fine is charged for each item starting from the day it was due. If you exceed the grace period, you must pay fines from the original due date.

Linked accounts for minors Each minor's account is linked to a responsible parent or legal guardian who assumes financial responsibility. Services are blocked for ALL linked parties when ONE cardholder in the group accumulates fines of $5.00 or more, or when any borrowed item is overdue 60 days or longer. When a cardholder reaches age 18 with earlier fines in his account, those earlier fines remain the responsibility of the parent or legal guardian.

Video borrowing privileges for minors must be pre-approved with the responsible adult's signature. See the library card application form for details.

Vacation extensions Patrons with travel plans may request a vacation extension, doubling the loan period for up to 7 audiobooks. Please alert library staff before the barcodes are scanned! This special accommodation assumes the audiobooks are not new releases, and are not waitlisted.

Overdue fines for AV equipment

Late returns incur fines of $2.00 per hour, or a maximum of $10.00 per day.

Renewal of borrowed equipment

Most equipment can be renewed for one additional loan period, as long as another patron has not reserved the item during that 3- or 14-day loan period. Exceptions are noted above. Renewals can be accomplished in person or by phone. We cannot accept equipment renewals by email.

Parts inventory

Equipment with multiple loose parts (such as DLP projectors) come with inventory sheets. A Library employee will take inventory at checkout, and again upon return.

Liability

The person who signs the Equipment Loan form is financially responsible for borrowed equipment that becomes damaged, lost, stolen; or that is missing parts when returned.

Tutorials

First-time users of a DLP projector are required to take a brief tutorial prior to checkout. The responsible party who signed the equipment loan form must attend.

Loss or Damage

Please notify the library, and bring parts to the front desk
