Friends of the Library Mini Book Sale

Natchitoches, LA, May 20, 2022 – The Friends of the Natchitoches Parish Library (FONPL) will be having a mini book sale at the Natchitoches Parish Library (NPL), beginning Monday, May 23rd. Thousands of items will be available for purchase including movies, tv shows, paperbacks, hardbacks, and audiobooks. All proceeds will go to the FONPL to help support future NPL programming.

The FONPL has previously helped sponsor such programs as the NPL's monthly adult fitness series (which has included line dancing, meditation, Zumba, and a walking club), children's yoga, the teen anime club, and the annual summer reading program, among others.

Several shelves will be available for browsing in the third-floor meeting room at the NPL, with new items being stocked each day. All items are being offered for 50 cents each. The sale will run during regular business hours, Monday, May 23rd - Saturday, June 4th.

No credit or debit card payments are possible, and change cannot be made by library staff. For more information on joining the FONPL or participating in the library's no-cost events, you may visit natlib.org or follow the NPL's Facebook page for announcements.
