Library Offering Costume Checkouts

Natchitoches, LA, September 30, 2022 – The Natchitoches Parish Library’s (NPL) Halloween costume checkout has returned for its seventh year! There are a variety of costumes for all ages, from infants to adults, and, whether you’re going for cute or spooky, you can find something for yourself at your local library.

Costumes are on display racks in the children’s area on the first floor of the main branch in Natchitoches and may be brought to the children’s circulation desk for checkout. The Northeast Branch (NEB), in Campti, also has costumes available for checkout.

Costumes are available on a first-come basis, so patrons are encouraged to come early for the widest selection. Adult patrons will be able to check out up to two costumes per adult card. Costumes will be due 6 weeks from the checkout date. Costumes must be returned in an unsoiled and undamaged condition.

Costume checkouts, like all library services, are offered at no cost to Natchitoches Parish residents. If you do not have a library card, there is no charge to sign up for one at either location. All you need is your current photo ID showing your correct address to take advantage of your local library.
