Friends Book Sale Postponed

Natchitoches, LA, March 13, 2020 – The Friends of the Natchitoches Parish Library (FONPL) are sad to announce that their annual book sale has been postponed. Considering the current pandemic, the sale will be held at a later date when the situation has improved.

“The Friends group believes that we, as community members, need to take all precautions in preventing the spread of illness,” said Tony Smith, President of the FONPL.

For information regarding future dates for the book sale or Natchitoches Parish Library services please visit natlib.org or the NPL’s Facebook page.
