Final Days of the Friends of the Library Book Sale

Natchitoches, LA, September 22, 2020 – The Friends of the Natchitoches Parish Library (FONPL) mini book sale will be ending on October 2nd. That means you have just over a week to browse the hundreds of items available for purchase, Monday through Friday, 9 am to 6 pm, in the Natchitoches Parish Library (NPL) Meeting Room. All proceeds will go towards NPL programming and literacy initiatives. All items are being offered for 50 cents each and new selections are added daily. Come and find some movies, books, and audiobooks, at a great price and for a good cause!

The NPL is following the state's occupancy guidelines and will be limiting the number of people in the building. Masks are required upon entry. For more information on library events, you may visit natlib.org or call 318-357-3280. For the most up to date information, follow the library's Facebook page for announcements.
