

For Immediate Release:

Contact:

Alan Niette

Natchitoches Parish Library

318-238-9236

alan@natlib.org

New Book Posted to Reading Trail

Natchitoches, LA, November 9, 2020 – The Natchitoches Parish Library (NPL) has a new book on the Reading Trail at Pierson-Mallett Park. “Cane River Counting,” written by Teresa Abels and illustrated by Denise DeVille, has been posted around the 0.2-mile circular trail for children and parents to enjoy. Here they can find scenes from Cane River Lake while also taking in some fresh Fall air as they visit the twenty stations on the trail. For even more fun, each photo has fleur-de-lis hidden for kids to find.

The book is also available for checkout at the NPL. The Reading Trail is located at 701 East 5th St. and is a joint effort of the NPL, City of Natchitoches, and Cane River National Heritage Area.

PHOTOS:

-NPL Logo.jpg

-Reading Trail.jpg

-Treading Trail_sign.jpg

About the Natchitoches Parish Library

Knowledge. Connection. Community. The Natchitoches Parish Library serves the public and community through its competent and friendly staff by providing services and programs aimed at meeting the informational, recreational, and educational needs of our patrons. We seek to provide a beneficial and usable collection of information and activities to connect Natchitoches Parish residents to the world.